

The planned objectives of the Asian-Pacific Community of Interest (COI) are as follows:

- To advance the professional growth of Asian Pacific American society members
- To promote the CFA “brand awareness” among Asian Pacific Americans in southern California
- To establish relationships between CFA LA and other local professional organizations with similar interests
- To facilitate research of Asian Pacific markets and investment opportunities to support information needs of those considering investment diversification into that region
- To establish and grow communication networks and relationships of mutual value with our professional colleagues in the Asian Pacific region
