

■ REGISTRATION FORM II

Commanding Officer Certification or Qualification

Dear Sir or Madam:

The USC/CFALA CFA Review Program offers free access over the Internet to the streaming media of our CFA review courses to members of the United States armed forces serving on active duty in the United States, abroad or at sea.

These materials help candidates seeking to become Chartered Financial Analysts prepare for the qualifying examinations offered by the CFA Institute. The CFA Institute leads the investment profession globally by setting the highest standards of ethics, education, and professional excellence. The CFA charter is the most widely recognized and respected practitioner certificate in the areas of financial management and valuation. More information about CFA Institute and about the USC/CFALA CFA Review Program respectively appears at www.cfainstitute.org and at www.cfala.org.

_____ is applying to take advantage of our offer.

He/she has identified you as his/her commanding officer. Could you please indicate whether he/she presently is a member of the United States armed forces serving on active duty in the United States, abroad or at sea?

- The applicant named above is a member of the United States armed forces who is serving on active duty in the United States, abroad or at sea.
