

WHAT'S NEXT FOR THE SAN FRANCISCO FED? - Why has economic recovery been so uneven? What are the barriers and where are the opportunities for growing and strengthening our economy? The Federal Reserve's role in our recovery is...? In his second visit to Town Hall Los Angeles, John C. Williams, PhD, President and CEO, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco will speak on the outlook for the economy and monetary policy in 2013. Williams will discuss what the Federal Reserve Bank is currently doing to keep the recovery on track and the effectiveness of policies, as well as a forecast for the coming future.

John C. Williams, PhD, President and CEO, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco

Outlook for the Economy and Monetary Policy

Wednesday, April 3rd at 11:30 am

Millennium Biltmore Hotel

Two weeks left to register! Sign up online here.

NEW DODGERS MANAGEMENT, NEW DODGERS EXPERIENCE? - After a multi-billion dollar change in management and deal with Time Warner Cable, what's next for the boys in blue? Can 2013 be a winning season for the Dodgers under new management? Have any of these changes affected the way you think about the Dodgers? Come hear Stan Kasten, President & CEO, Los Angeles Dodgers on the future of Dodger baseball in Los Angeles. Kasten's speech, "Building a Franchise," will discuss the essential building blocks to building any company, even a sports team, and how to focus on your product, your customer and your brand.

Stan Kasten, President & CEO, Los Angeles Dodgers

"Building a Franchise"

Wednesday, April 17th at 11:30 am

Millennium Biltmore Hotel

For online registration, click here.

We hope to see you soon,

Town Hall Los Angeles